Art Opening

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 3RD 12-6PM
BODEGA BAY INN

Free Form Flow Sculpture by Michael Collins

“The sculptures flow from dreams into this dimension through Bioteature, an ecofunctional art technique that provides permanence of outdoor show to create bold forms and radical impressions.”

Live music by Cuyuy, food and honoring Dia De Los Muertos

Artist & designer Michael Collins is a freeform visionary who inhabits the creative space between materials science, ecodesign and sustainable landscaping. He seeks inspiration from nature and indigenous cultures to shatter the envelope of the possible, creating delightful and mind-expanding works of functional art. Over the past 25 years his designs have found homes in a variety of settings, ranging from organic vineyards and hotel landscapes to premier residences throughout the west coast. Please join us for this one-of-a-kind experience!
